THE MARCH 13th MEETING

Josh Rosenfeld will begin the meeting with a photo slideshow presentation featuring the beauty of the river.

Commissioner Dick Roan represents district 2 which includes the river below the dam. His home is on a river lot in Pecan Plantation.

Charles Baskett served for years as a county commissioner and will bring considerable knowledge and government experience to the discussion. He is a member of the BRCC-HCC Advisory Board.

CHAPTER WEBSITE

The chapter website is up and running thanks to the efforts of Phil Delucchi and Doug Richards. Applying his talent and experience Doug composed the site, secured a domain name, arranged the hosting and got the site operating in just two weeks.

Go to the site at www.brcchood.org for chapter information of past and current interest and links to other sources of information.

Members are encouraged to e-mail Phil Delucchi with material for posting that would be of interest to the membership. If something is of interest to you, it will probably be of interest others.

IT'S YOUR E-NEWSLETTER

Just as with the website, members should feel free to submit items for inclusion in the Chapter E-Newsletter. Please keep in mind that it is a newsletter, not an encyclopedia, so items should be brief and on point with the Chapter's mission.
